The Commissioner of Indian Affairs,

Sir:

I refer to my report dated July 22, 1921 advising that the census of Indian population for the ten Pueblos under this Agency was having a complete and careful revision. The statistical section of the 1921 Annual Report gives the result of this computation, indicating a reduction in former census figures of about 200. The 1920 population (old census) showed 7037 Indians, ie, Pueblos 6675; Navajo 362. The present revised census shows, Pueblos 6439, Navajo 361, Total 6800-----a difference of 237 persons.

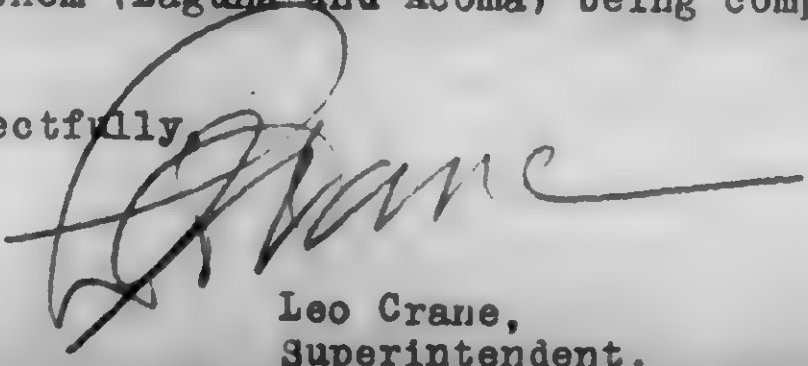

Most of the errors were discovered in the population of the Pueblos of Isleta and Acoma; the population of Isleta formerly showing as 1138, whereas today it is 988.

This matter of complete revision presented so many changes that it was thought necessary to begin with this new census a new series of numbers.

The original copies of the 1921 census are enclosed in several envelopes-----eight of the Pueblos having their census lists complete in one section each, and two of them (Laguna and Acoma) being complete in several divisions.

Respectfully

LC:MB
Encls.

Leo Crane,
Superintendent.

Acomita Pueblo Indians.
